The image shows a musical score for a quintet saxophone quintet. It consists of five systems of staves. The first system has a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a QR code in the center labeled "Android". The second system has a grand staff with a QR code in the center labeled "iOS". The third, fourth, and fifth systems each have a grand staff without QR codes. The QR codes are intended for users to scan and download the music score to their mobile devices.
