The image displays a musical score for the piece 'Ritmo Oscuro' by Anselmo Villarroya. The score is presented on a white background with black musical notation. It consists of two systems of staves. Each system includes a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and a single bass clef staff. The first system is labeled 'Android' and features a QR code in the center. The second system is labeled 'iOS' and also features a QR code in the center. The QR codes are intended for users to scan and access the digital score on their respective mobile devices.
